NEW AFTER-SCHOOL PROGRAM

Intro to Tabletop Roleplaying + Dungeons and Dragons

Spark your child's imagination and help them develop more patience, understanding and confidence.

Register now to secure their seat at a table!

They'll learn the basics of turn-based game play, embrace a fantasy character of their own, paint their very own take-home miniature figurine, get a free set of roleplaying dice, and be immersed in a fun, creative, challenging story run by a geeky adult facilitator (and EPS parent).

You don't need to know the rules.
Neither does your child.

More than a game

Around a table, children explore new worlds and decide together what happens next. Along the way, they'll tell their own story, and have a great time doing it.
